

1           DELEGATE CHILD: There is none in Maryland, be-2           cause this section which we now have in the Constitution
3           has acted so well that I couldn't find under the Consti-4           tutional provision here any decision which has gone to 5           the Court of Appeals regarding bail under that.

6           DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Hargrove.

7           DELEGATE HARGROVE: Did you check the Federal 8           authorities, where they do have some cases dealing with 9           the setting of bail? I believe the only criteria used 10          in any case that I have seen is the question of whether 11          or not for the person facing a trial,-- as to whether 12          or not he has a prior criminal record.

13          Did your committee consider this?

14          DELEGATE JAMES: Judge Child.

15          DELEGATE CHILD: I don't know what the so-called 16          majority, which is now the minority, considered, because 17          I was perfectly satisfied, have always been satisfied with 18          the old Constitutional provision, and I don't think we 19          need anything else, in view of the statutes and the rule 20          which has been passed under them.

21          DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Hargrove.
